

Pickleball Art Exhibition and BBQ

Thank you so much to all of you who supported the Pickleball Fundraising Garden Party Art Exhibition and BBQ. Particular thanks to the organising committee of David Bungard, Lou Stephens and Gillian Collinson as well as my long suffering husband Steve Harris. This started out just as a pickleball party before Lou and I got delusions of grandeur and invited our fabulous artists Emma Robins, Salli Griffith and our sculptor Seamus Cuddihy to exhibit. And thanks also to Jane and Mike from the U.K. Pickleball Shop for the chance to try out paddles and other kit.

Thank you all for so generously supporting the event and the raffle.

We were lucky that the sun shone on us and it was so lovely to see so many pickleball friends again. Lou, as only Lou can, kept everything moving on the pickleball courts with her famous festival board. David, it turns out, is a master on the BBQ, cooking vast quantities of burgers and sausages. Thanks also to Carol who did so much salad preparation and provided everyone with very welcome teas and coffees as the afternoon progressed.

Included are some photos from the day.

Finally, we raised over £1,300 for pbE.
